ACT Prep Course

Designed to raise student test scores

The ACT contains four curriculum-based tests that measure academic achievement in the areas of English, reading, math and science reasoning. Preparing for the ACT can increase test scores that are important for gaining entry into the college of your choice and in receiving scholarships.

The workshops are comprehensive and designed to complement area high schools' half day programs.

ACT Prep Course – Spring 2010

$149, includes text-book and pre- and post-tests

Feb. 20, pre-test – 8:30-11:45 a.m.

Feb. 27, March 6, 13 and 20, academic areas –
8:30-11:30 a.m.

March 27, post-test – 8:30-11:45 a.m.

137 Wimberly Hall, UW-La Crosse

Deadline: Feb. 5 or until enrollment is reached.

Course materials are provided by Cambridge Educational Services, the leader in test preparation.

Students will:

- Take a retired ACT test establishing a starting point
- Receive a detailed computer analysis of the test showing strengths and weaknesses
- Receive and use a textbook containing exercises, practice tests and basic skills review
- Learn powerful test-taking strategies for each test section and question type, frequently tested concepts and question patterns, specific test structures and scoring methods for each of the four academic areas
- Reinforce the strategies learned through interactive skill drills and multiple practice tests
- Be introduced to the new essay component of the ACT test and learn the skills necessary to complete it
- Take a final, official retired ACT test and receive a detailed computer analysis for comparison with the pre-test
- Be able to use the data provided from the final test to prepare for the actual ACT exam

"I learned problem solving techniques, test taking skills and problem identification skills."
