

ACT[®] Prep Course

This unparalleled ACT[®] test preparation course readies students for all four sections of the ACT[®] test, plus the optional writing section. Students take official, retired ACT[®] pre- and post-tests to determine strengths and weaknesses. Qualified instructors work directly with students to work through this comprehensive preparation program.

“It’s helped me to look for simpler and faster ways to solve test problems.”

Real interaction.
Real results.

ACT[®] Prep Course

The ACT[®] test is a gateway to your future plans. Don't make the ACT[®] more stressful by arriving unprepared.

"I learned tips and strategies on how to answer the ACT[®] questions more accurately and efficiently."
— Past ACT Prep Course Participant

Preparing for the ACT[®] can increase test scores that are important for gaining acceptance into your college of choice and for expanding your scholarship opportunities.

This course is designed to complement area high schools' preparatory programs.

Students will:

- Establish their own baseline for ACT[®] testing by completing an official, retired ACT[®] test
- Receive a detailed analysis of their baseline test to understand personal strengths and weaknesses
- Learn powerful test-taking strategies for each test section and question type
- Gain an understanding of the test structure, question types, and scoring methods for each academic area
- Build confidence through interactive skill drills and practice exercises
- Complete the course by taking another official, retired ACT[®] test and receive a final analysis
