IMPORTANT FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN INFORMATION

- 1- All first-time Federal Direct Loans borrowers MUST complete a new Direct Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN), available on the Financial Aid website, www.uwlax.edu/finaid. Choose Quick Links on the navigation bar and then choose Direct Loan Master Promissory Note.
- 2- Federal Direct Loans received for the summer will reduce your 2012-13 loan eligibility.
- 3- GRADUATE STUDENTS: Summer 2012 is the last term for subsidized loans for graduate students. If you are a graduate student who declines or reduces a summer subsidized loan offer, it will not be reoffered for the academic year.
- 4- Summer School Federal Direct Loans will be disbursed on the first day of classes for the session in which you are enrolled.
- 5- If you are originally enrolled at least half-time and receive aid and then drop below half-time, your aid may be returned.

Your financial aid application process must be completed prior to the last day of Summer School. Therefore, it is advisable to apply no later than July 23, 2012.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Once your eligibility has been determined, you will receive an e-mail at your campus e-mail address informing you that your financial aid award is available online in WINGS. Follow the instructions for accepting your award. Failure to do so could result in your financial aid award being cancelled. Check your "to do" list in WINGS for other documents needed.

*If you are enrolled less than half-time and want loans for summer, you will need to complete an alternative student loan application with a lender that allows loans for less than half-time students.
Visit www.uwlax.edu/finaid/appliproceS12.html for links to lenders that offer these loans.*
