VP Recruitment

-the box of shirts will be brought to the meeting please grab one after the meeting if you have not picked up your shirt, I do not want them just sitting at my house thanks J

-There is a box of free things which we received from SELF magazine coming around please take as many as you would like because it's free and I'd prefer for it to not be sitting in my room as well thanks!!

-We have two recruitment events this week:

The first is Destination Philanthropy on Tuesday the 15th this will be in room 337 in CC

Please wear your "National Wear Red" shirts to this event if you have them otherwise any bounce for beats shirts you have or if you don't have any of those try and wear pink or red. Thanks!

The second event is Destination Leadership which is essentially Meet the Chapter this will be in Room 326 in CC. Please wear pin attire to this event as it is our most formal of events and will be conducted just like all of our other meet the chapters. This event we will be able to discuss our leadership positions which Alpha Phi has and also be showing the Recruitment Slide Show Video.

-The COB binder will be going around with sign up sheets for the upcoming events and keep an eye on your email this week for Info table information J

-Great job with attendance to the recruitment events so far. We are really doing awesome and I'm very proud of all of you once again for all of your hard work you've been putting into recruitment

-Please be sure to keep communicating with your recruitment captains and teams throughout this process and be sure to direct any questions your captains aren't able to answer to either Amber or myself. I hope the teams are going great! Also, keep watching your emails for any additional names which need to be added to your lists of PNM's

-Make sure that you are filling out scorecards at the events. They are a crucial part to recruitment and we need to make sure we are utilizing that communication about our potential members. Otherwise we may not be making completely informed decisions about our potential sisters so, definitely make sure you are completing them after the events

-Please keep in mind the Recruitment Pearl Points totals that you should be trying to strive for and really set a goal to go above and beyond this semester. Recruitment is a huge portion of the first couple weeks and you have all been so enthusiastic so keep it up and I know we can all be making our pearl points and then some!!

VPPD:

Ivy Circles will be announced next week.

Please give me your scholarship and info sheets asap

New Events Situations report to be introduced next week

VPM

Festival did not have any weekends available for a brat sale so please continue Bounce for Beats fundraising on your own. If you come up with any brilliant fundraising ideas that you would like to try please let myself or Natalie know. Thanks!
