

Global Common Rubric Draft In BLUE is language of our traits (previous objectives)

Goal: Our students will be prepared to serve others in a global environment.

Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate global perspectives in business decisions.

Trait	Does not meet expectations 1	Meets expectations 2	More than meets expectations 3
Recognize the role of cultural diversity in business decisions	Does not identify any aspect of cultural diversity as a factor in business decisions.	Identifies cultural diversity as a factor in business decisions.	Identifies cultural diversity as a factor in business decisions and provides specific examples.
Analyze the global impact of political, social/cultural, economic and legal issues on business decisions.	Considers limited global perspectives/issues and does not consider their relationship.	Integrates several global perspectives/issues and considers at least one way they interact.	Multiple global perspectives/issues are considered and their interaction is considered
Use global perspectives to make decisions.	Fails to make decisions based on political, social/cultural, economic and legal issues, or draws conclusions which ignore the context.	Makes decisions based on political, social/cultural, economic and legal issues, by considering some, but not all, of the context considered.	Makes decisions based on political, social/cultural, economic and legal issues, by considering the entire context considered. Objectively reflects upon their own assertions.