

EYES ON THE PRIZE: THE AWAKENING [PART 1]

- 1) After the conclusion of the Civil War, why did 90 percent of the Black population in the US remain in the South as opposed to migrating North?
- 2) What legal action resulted in the resurrection of racially discriminatory legislation and social policies throughout all the Southern States?
- 3) What exactly did Emmett Till do that justified his murder in 1955 by Milam and Bryant?
- 4) What exactly did Emmett's uncle Mose Wright do to grab the attention of the nation and to shock every Southern citizen in the State of Mississippi?
- 5) What was the jury's verdict in the murder trial against Milam and Bryant? On what basis was this verdict rendered?
- 6) Why were so few Blacks registered to vote [only about 2%] in states like Mississippi and Alabama?
