

THE MYTH OF THE RATIONAL VOTER

A Lecture

6:00 - 7:30 PM • Thursday, October 27, 2016

University of Wisconsin - La Crosse, Centennial Hall

When you look at the field of candidates in Election 2016, you may find yourself wondering: How did we get here? Are these the best candidates America has or did something go wrong along the way? This seminar presentation will look at democracies and how we get the policies - and policy makers - we end up with.

Bryan Caplan
Professor of Economics at George Mason University

Bryan Caplan is a blogger for EconLog and the author of several books including The Myth of the Rational Voter, named "the best political book of the year" by The New York Times.
