

INFORMATIONAL PROGRAMS AND DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

THE CAMPUS SECURITY POLICY & CAMPUS CRIMES STATISTICS ACT require crime statistics be available for review. The UW-La Crosse annual security report lists criminal activity on or near campus and is available online at:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/StudentLife/secrpt.html#Top>

A hard copy of the report is available from the Office of Protective Services, Human Resources, or the Office of Student Life.

Online crime prevention information is available at the Protective Services site located under Administrative Services. Web address:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/police/>

Direct questions about
the annual security report to:

Scott W. Rohde
Chief of Protective Services
785-8711

Marcia Johnson-Sage
Office of Student Life
785-8066

DRUG ABUSE and dependency are national social and health problems, with devastating consequences to individuals, their friends, and family.

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 requires educational institutions to conduct a biennial review of their program to determine its effectiveness and to ensure that the disciplinary sanctions described are consistently enforced. To access the UW-L Biennial Review, and to review UW-L policies regarding drug abuse, visit the Human Resources web site at:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/hr/newemp/drugfreewp.htm>

UW-L is concerned about the adverse effects of drug abuse on employee job performance, health, safety, and campus security. All UW-L policies regarding drug abuse are intended to foster a drug-free, healthful, and safe work environment.

INFORMATIONAL PROGRAMS AND DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

THE CAMPUS SECURITY POLICY & CAMPUS CRIMES STATISTICS ACT require crime statistics be available for review. The UW-La Crosse annual security report lists criminal activity on or near campus and is available online at:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/StudentLife/secrpt.html#Top>

A hard copy of the report is available from the Office of Protective Services, Human Resources, or the Office of Student Life.

Online crime prevention information is available at the Protective Services site located under Administrative Services. Web address:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/police/>

Direct questions about
the annual security report to:

Scott W. Rohde
Chief of Protective Services
785-8711

Marcia Johnson-Sage
Office of Student Life
785-8066

DRUG ABUSE and dependency are national social and health problems, with devastating consequences to individuals, their friends, and family.

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 requires educational institutions to conduct a biennial review of their program to determine its effectiveness and to ensure that the disciplinary sanctions described are consistently enforced. To access the UW-L Biennial Review, and to review UW-L policies regarding drug abuse, visit the Human Resources web site at:

<http://www.uwlax.edu/hr/newemp/drugfreewp.htm>

UW-L is concerned about the adverse effects of drug abuse on employee job performance, health, safety, and campus security. All UW-L policies regarding drug abuse are intended to foster a drug-free, healthful, and safe work environment.