

UW-L College of Liberal Studies

INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE FILM SERIES

FREE!

www.uwlax.edu/cls

How does the media perpetuate and/or challenge racism in popular culture?

Does The Help perpetuate the history of racism in the U.S.?

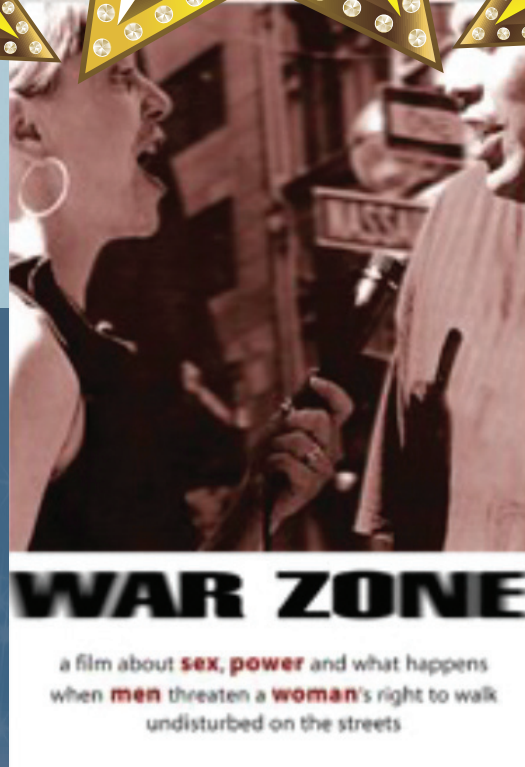

THE HELP

Monday, Feb. 27, 2012
6:30-9 p.m.

Cameron Hall of Nations
Centennial Hall

Moderator: Charles Martin-Stanley, Ph.D.

Co-sponsored by the College of Liberal Studies
and Office of Multicultural
Student Services

What does it feel like to be a woman on the street when men heckle, touch or berate?

What can women do to challenge this harassment?

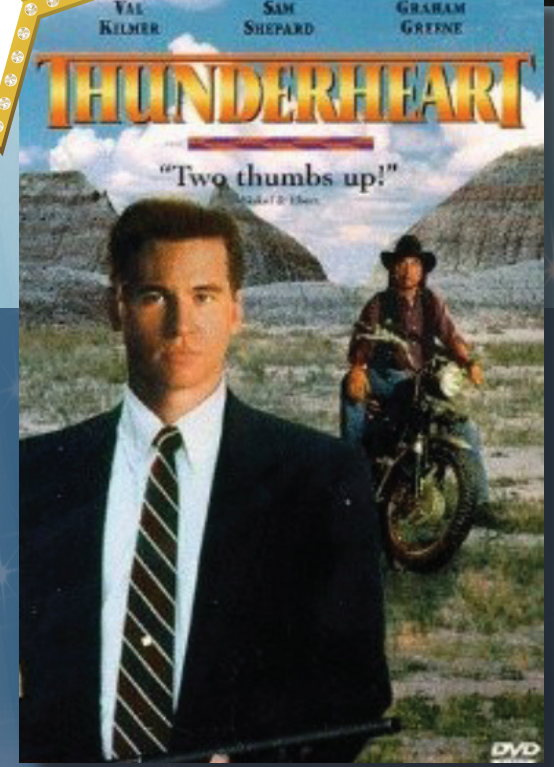

WAR ZONE

Tuesday March 6, 2012
7-9 p.m.

Port O'Call
Cartwright Center-Gunning Addition

Moderator: Deb Hoskins, Ph.D.

Co-sponsored by the College of Liberal Studies and
The Department of Women's,
Gender and Sexuality Studies

How does the history of colonization create personal and professional conflicts?

How do you distinguish heroes from villains?

THUNDERHEART

Monday, March 26, 2012
6:30-9 p.m.

Cameron Hall of Nations
Centennial Hall

Moderator: Carol Oyster, Ph.D.

Co-sponsored by the College of Liberal Studies
and the Department of Racial and Ethnic Studies

Refreshments will be served and discussion to follow each viewing.

To request disability accommodations or more information: 608.785.8113