

The CLS Institute for Latino/a and Latin American Studies
Hispanic Heritage Month Film Series

Retorno a Hansala* (2008) N.R.

6:30-8 PM Tuesday, October 6

Carl Wimberly Hall 141.

Film discussion follows, facilitated by

Vicente C. Guillot,

Associate Professor of World Languages, Viterbo University

After meeting the sister of a dead man who risked his life to travel from Morocco to Spain on a rubber raft (patera) a Spanish mortuary owner (José Luis García Pérez) is forced to reassess the nature of his work. While it's undeniably lucrative to help the Spanish government clean up the endless stream of corpses washing ashore, it proves morally problematic once he sees where the bodies are coming from in this moving drama. Spanish and Arabic with English subtitles.

For accommodation requests call or email Max Nobienksy (nobiesnk.maxw@students.uwlax.edu) or 785-8337

Funded by LASO, ILLAS, and College of Liberal Studies, UWL