PRAXIS Project Student Teams

Are you interested in education as a profession OR do you like to program in Flash? Would you like to help design new teaching and learning materials? If so, you should know that the math and science Faculty at UW-L have received a grant to design and program "Learning Objects" relating to the PRAXIS exams, and they may need your help. Come to the talk to hear more about the project and discover what is in it for you (fun, prestige, travel, money, experience)!! Hope to see you there!
