Statistical Consulting Center: Working in the trenches

Chad Lorrigan & Casey Higgins
UW-L Students

We had the opportunity to help with the analysis of faculty and graduate student research through the UW-L Statistical Consulting Center this year. We will be discussing the projects we worked on, the statistical procedures used, and the things we learned in consulting that we didn't learn in class.

Thursday, April 21th
4:15 – 5:00 pm in 151 Cowley

Cookies and Coffee will be served in 102
Cowley from 4:00 - 4:15 pm.
