

UWL MOCK AAAS SCIENCE BOOKS AND FILMS AWARD RUBRIC – SECONDARY LEVEL

Book Title & Author:

NOT MET	ADEQUATE	CRITERIA	GOOD	EXEMPLARY
		The book is appropriate for children in grades 9-12.
		The book contains no serious errors or deficiencies in explanations of science content or processes.
		The book has a clear purpose, is well-organized, and the scientific concepts are accurately presented.

The outlined criteria are the official SB&F award criteria.

UWL MOCK AAAS SCIENCE BOOKS AND FILMS AWARD RUBRIC – SECONDARY LEVEL

NOT MET	ADEQUATE	CRITERIA	GOOD	EXEMPLARY
		In accordance with Project 2061’s Nature of Science Benchmark, the book should engage early adolescents in science and encourage them to reflect on the science they are engaged in.
		The science portrayed in the book is open to inquiry and should encourage the reader to ask questions.
		When fitting, the book shows that men and women of different ages and backgrounds are involved in science.

The outlined criteria are the official SB&F award criteria.