

Patient Log

Student Clinical Experiences

The purpose of this log is to allow the student an opportunity to keep a record of the patients they have treated along with their diagnoses and the types of examination procedures practiced. A student can monitor the variety within their learning experience as well as making note of possible needs for future experiences. It is intended to provide you with information. It is a tool and nothing more.