

STUDENT TRAVEL & SUPPLIES GRANTS

College of Science and Health

Don't miss the application deadline:
April 5, 2010

WHAT IS THIS?

The CSAH Student Research Travel and Supplies Grants are designed to facilitate the development and initiation of collaborative research projects between Science and Health faculty and their undergraduate students.

WHAT AMOUNT OF SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE?

Individual students, and collaborative teams of students (see Collaborative Projects at the link below) submitting single proposals may apply for no more than $400 Supplies and up to $400 Travel per academic year, plus up to $400 per summer (Supplies or Travel). Students may apply for both types of grants during a given academic year. CSAH Travel and Supplies grants may be used in combination with other student or faculty research grants.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

Students must:

- be an undergraduate currently enrolled at UW-L
- be majoring in one of the Science and Health disciplines
- have a cumulative GPA > 2.5
- be a full-time student during the academic year period from the application date through the semester of the grant award (summer Supplies grant awardees must remain full time students during the subsequent Fall semester).
- not be performing the research project as an assignment in a formal class.
