

Do You Know Who Your Kids Are “Talking” To Online?

You Might Be Surprised!

Franklin Elementary School Presents:

The Dark Side of the Internet: Sexual Predators of Children

Presented By:

Wisconsin Department of Justice Special Agent Eric Szatkowski

While the Internet offers a world of educational and entertainment options for young people, it also has a dark and dangerous side we must be aware of. This presentation on the online exploitation of children includes real-life examples and practical advice for anyone interested in the safety and well-being of our children. An eye-opening live demonstration of chat rooms is included.

Please Note: Due to the nature of the subject, this presentation is appropriate for adults only.

About the Speaker:

Eric Szatkowski has been a Special Agent with the Wisconsin Department of Justice/ Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) since 1991. He’s currently assigned to the state’s Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force in Milwaukee. Since 1999, Eric has become of the nation’s leading undercover officers in apprehending sexual predators of children who use the Internet to seduce or exploit children. He has been responsible for the arrest of between 100 and 150 men from Wisconsin and around the nation, most of whom traveled various distances to have sex with what they believed to be an underage boy or girl. Eric’s arrests also include those who sexually assault children, distribute, possess, and/or manufacture child pornography, and expose children to harmful materials.
