The UW-L Department of Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (WGSS), in conjunction with the Department of Theatre Arts, will present an in-depth look at Louisa May Alcott's classic story, Little Women. All are invited to see the play, Little Women: The Musical and read the 2006 novel March by Geraldine Brooks. Winner of the 2006 Pulitzer Prize for fiction, March chronicles the events of the Civil War as seen by the "little women's" absent father, Mr. March.

A discussion of the two stories, facilitated by Elise Denlinger of the WGSS program and Sharon Jessee of the English Department, will follow the matinee performance on Sunday, March 1, 2009 beginning at approximately 4:00 p.m. Discussion will be in room 141 Center for the Arts, across from the Art Gallery. Refreshments will be provided. Book club groups are especially welcome to participate.
