

DIALOGUE MATTERS

BRIDGING VOICES AT UWL

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION 2025

PURPOSE OF THIS ZINE

To foster a resilient campus community where students engage in civil discourse that deepens learning and reflects the Universities of Wisconsin's commitment to academic freedom, free expression, and inclusive dialogue. Students will reflect on their path to UWL while learning about their rights to speak and learn on an array of matters.

UWL MISSION

The mission of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse is to provide “a challenging, dynamic, and diverse learning environment in which the entire university community is fully engaged in supporting student success.” in pursuit of this mission, UWL encourages and protects diverse perspectives, the free flow of ideas, and open discussion among students, faculty, staff, and other members of the campus community. constructive engagement with differing perspectives in a climate of free inquiry is essential to the pursuit of knowledge. UWL is committed to providing all members of the university community the broadest possible latitude to speak, write, listen, challenge and learn.

UWL VALUES

Mens Corpusque fosters student growth in both mind and body.

The Wisconsin Idea asserts that education should impact individuals beyond the classroom.

Diversity, equity, inclusion, and engagement incorporates global viewpoints.

A sense of work and life balance to promote quality of life.

DEDICATION TO FREE SPEECH AND CIVIL DIALOGUE

At the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (UWL), we are steadfast in our commitment to academic freedom and freedom of expression. We understand that encountering new, different, or opposing perspectives can be challenging and uncomfortable; this is an essential aspect of the educational experience. We encourage all members of our campus community to engage with diverse viewpoints, affirming our commitment to intellectual exploration, and to take responsibility for their expression's impact on others.

To support this commitment, we take a multifaceted approach to foster a culture of open dialogue and engagement, including but not limited to:

MURPHY LIBRARY GUIDES

Offers a range of resource guides on topics such as free speech, voting, the Constitution, and anti-racism to support our educational mission.

FREE SPEECH WEEK

The Joint Committee for Civil Discourse coordinates Free Speech Week to emphasize the importance of free expression and critical thinking. The committee plans additional events throughout the academic year.

SOCIAL JUSTICE WEEK

Organizers coordinate events for faculty, staff, and students to share research and stories, discuss social justice, and explore how identities shape community experiences, aiming to inspire actionable social change.

THE DISCUSSION PROJECT

Provides professional development for faculty and staff to enhance facilitation skills, ensuring diverse voices are heard and students are actively engaged.

BIAS SUPPORT AND EDUCATION TEAM (BSET)

Addresses forms of bias through campus assessment, impactful programming and comprehensive support to develop a community of belonging.

CENTER FOR ADVANCING TEACHING AND LEARNING (CATL)

Offers guidance for managing challenging classroom conversations, helping educators foster productive and respectful discussions.

LEADERSHIP AND INVOLVEMENT CENTER

Engages students in leadership, involvement, and service opportunities such as volunteering, UWL Votes, and the Civil Discourse Program

THE FIRST AMENDMENT

"CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW RESPECTING AN ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION, OR PROHIBITING THE FREE EXERCISE THEREOF; OR ABRIDGING THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OR OF THE PRESS; OR THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE PEACEABLY TO ASSEMBLE, AND TO PETITION THE GOVERNMENT FOR A REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES."

THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION WAS RATIFIED IN 1791 TO PROTECT FUNDAMENTAL EXPRESSIVE RIGHTS. IN THE 1950s, THE US SUPREME COURT EXPANDED FIRST AMENDMENT PROTECTIONS TO INCLUDE ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND EXPRESSIVE RIGHTS.

- Sweezy v. New Hampshire (1957): Recognized faculty academic freedom
- NAACP v. Alabama (1958): Recognized freedom of expressive association

Because these rights apply to all levels of government, the UW Board of Regents and the Universities of Wisconsin uphold them in their policies.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

You can express your views and support others' rights to do the same. It does not mean all speech is protected. See pages 10-11 for an overview of what is protected and what is unlawful.

THINK: FREE SPEECH FOR WE.

THE U.S. SUPREME COURT HAS AFFIRMED THAT, IN PUBLIC FORUMS, THE GOVERNMENT GENERALLY CANNOT RESTRICT SPEECH BASED ON ITS CONTENT OR VIEWPOINT, WHETHER TARGETING A SPECIFIC TOPIC (CONTENT DISCRIMINATION) OR A PARTICULAR OPINION (VIEWPOINT DISCRIMINATION). TIME, PLACE, AND MANNER REGULATIONS THAT ARE NEUTRAL TOWARD CONTENT AND VIEWPOINT ARE SUBJECT TO LESS LEGAL SCRUTINY AND ARE MORE LIKELY TO BE UPHELD.

OFTEN PROTECTED SPEECH

VARIOUS FORMS OF SPEECH ARE LEGALLY PROTECTED, INCLUDING:

- Controversial political topics
- Provocative artistic expression
- Hate or offensive speech

Some protected speech, including hate speech, can still cause harm to a community and should be addressed. See page 17 for information on how to report incidents that occur on campus.

POP QUIZ

1. What year was the Constitution written? When was it ratified?
2. What is an amendment?
3. The first ten amendments to the constitution are known as the...
4. True or False, only one amendment to the Constitution has been repealed.

Answers on page 18

"To suppress free speech is a double wrong. It violates the rights of the hearer as well as the speaker."

- Frederick Douglass

BIAS \ BĪ·əs \ n 1: inclination or preference either for or against an individual or group that interferes with impartial judgment. Bias can be conscious or unconscious and is a product of socialization and life experiences that shape our perceptions and judgments.

WHEN AN ACT OF BIAS OR INJUSTICE OCCURS,
REMEMBER THAT YOU HAVE AGENCY. YOU CAN CHOOSE
HOW TO RESPOND AND TAKE MEANINGFUL ACTION.

HERE ARE SOME OPTIONS, DEPENDING ON THE SEVERITY AND WHAT FEELS RIGHT TO YOU:

IGNORE IT

Walking away can be the best option. If possible, plan ahead to create an exit strategy.

LET SOMEONE KNOW

Connect with a trusted staff or faculty member such as an RA, reliable instructor, and/or a department you have made a relationship with.

SUBMIT A BIAS REPORT

Letting UWL administration know about incidents that occur on campus. This ensures documentation for tracking purposes.

SELF-ADVOCATE

Asserting your own interests and needs.

CALL IN

Addressing with care, not shame, to understand and educate.

USE COUNTER-SPEECH

Addressing harmful speech with alternative viewpoints.

BE AN ADVOCATE

Learning thrives when diverse perspectives are welcomed, not silenced. Welcoming views is not the same as demanding ideological balance; rather, it reflects a commitment to a truth-seeking process and to fostering a space where robust discourse can occur.

BE AN UPSTANDER

Speaking against injustice or wrongdoing.

WRITE TO A LEGISLATOR

Explaining your viewpoints to local representatives.

PLAN OR PARTICIPATE IN A DEMONSTRATION

Organizing or joining a campus demonstration is a powerful way to express your views. You are encouraged to seek guidance on the dos and don'ts.

PLAN OR PARTICIPATE IN A COUNTER DEMONSTRATION

Coordinating an event or demonstration to oppose a cause or draw attention to another viewpoint.

ENGAGE IN CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

Engaging in a nonviolent way to protest laws or policies while understanding that it may come with consequences.

REPORT AN INCIDENT OR CONCERN

Active communication about incidents on campus, student concerns, and misconduct supports student success and ensures a safe educational environment.
