

Management Major Learning Objectives

Global Perspective Learning Objective

Students are able to summarize and evaluate the ways in which management practices influence, and are influenced by, the global context of business.

Management Principles Learning Objective

Students are able to analyze and recommend solutions for business problems using management concepts and theories.

Organizational Behavior and Human Resources Learning Objective

Students are able to explain the complex interaction of individual, group and organizational factors that are relevant to organizational effectiveness.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Learning Objective

Students are able to evaluate management practices with regard to social responsibility and ethics.