

CBA Academic Program Structure

The CBA academic program structure is depicted below. All programs are housed in an academic department except for the International Business program which is managed by the CBA International Business Advisory Committee (IBAC). IBAC is made up of one representative from each academic department. The Internet MBA is not a CBA program, but the college is a consortium member.

