and Cooper Shea

WELCOME!!

- Introductions
- Student Success
 - Advising/Advisors
 - Student Role
 - Quick overview of WINGs
 - Resources
- Next meeting...

Academic advising

- Who is your advisor?
- Where is their office?
- Have more than one?

- Advisor will have access to academic plan requirements — as do you through WINGS
- Beware of advising “restrictions”
 - In WINGS under “Holds”; block registration
- Group advising

Meeting with Your Advisor

- Be prepared
 - Bring a tentative class schedule
 - Be familiar with requirements
 - Consider career goals to discuss with advisor
 - Make a list your questions you want to ask
- You advising role
 - Help your advisor be more helpful to you
 - You're familiar with the Timetable, UG Catalog, websites relating to your academic plan—right?

Academic Service Directors

What is our role in your success?

- Students interested in taking a class at another school check with us to make sure their transfer course works in their academic plan
- Students contact us with requests for overrides for the following registration issues (these also always require instructor support, by the way)
 - course time conflicts
 - class standing (Sophomore Standing, Junior Standing, etc.)
 - minimum GPA, admission to program
 - Credit overloads for Fall and Spring (over 18 credits), Winter (over three credits), and summer (over 12 credits)
- Provide notice of changes in academic standing, including
 - Send certificates to students who earn Deans List honors (fall, spring semesters)
 - Notify students when they are under academic probation
 - Notify and review appeals from students who have been suspended
- Verify progress towards graduation and degree completion for graduation.
- For more details visit our site: <https://www.uwlax.edu/info/academic-advising/>

Tips for Success

- Time management
 - Use a planner and keep a balance!
- Prepare for lectures like you would an exam. 2-3 hours outside of class for every hour in class
 - Read your syllabus! (Your instructor assumes that you have read it)
- Engage instructors and other resources
 - Answer and ask questions!
- GO TO CLASS EVERY DAY (expect to attend 70% of the time? Expect to earn a 70% in the class)
- Attend CSH and University events, speakers, etc. Become engaged outside the classroom.
