Now offered Fall and Spring Semesters
This 3-credit graduate course is designed to prepare in-service teachers to serve as a cooperating teacher for teacher candidates in field / practicum and student teaching placements.

- Offered entirely online
- No cost to participants*
- 14 modules; one per week
- Class starts Tuesday, 2/2/2021

Learn about these and other topics
- roles & responsibilities of all parties
- professional boundaries & relationships
- student teaching & field expectations
- communication & resolving conflicts
- supporting students with edTPA
- social media & responsible use of technology

Questions? Call 785-8126 or email crussell@uwla.edu

*UW-La Crosse offers a course fee waiver when the CI-695 student signs an agreement indicating their willingness to serve as a cooperating teacher for pre-student teachers (field students) or student teachers in the future. Interested CI 695 students must be admitted as a Special Non-Degree student by Tuesday, 1/19/2021 and meet the course prerequisites: a baccalaureate degree, teacher certification and PK-12 teaching experience. Enrollment information can be found on the UWL website at: https://www.uwlax.edu/admissions/apply/special-non-degree-studentspecial/

If you are already admitted, registration for Non-Degree students starts 12/21/20! Space is limited to 20 participants.