Kevin Amerling (Lighting Designer)--Kevin is excited to be the Lighting Designer for the first time. He is a Business Management and Administration major with a minor in Theater Technical Design. Previous productions include Little Women (lighting crew), The Revolutionists (Master Electrician), Spotlight (Sound Board Op), and Murder on the Orient Express (Assistant Lighting Designer).

Ellie Augustine (Asst. Props Designer)--Ellie has been performing since 5th grade, when she did her very first musical The Jungle Book and fell in love with the performing arts. She recently appeared as Fred’s Wife in A Christmas Carol and Marie Antoinette in The Revolutionists.

Nic Barilar (Director)--Nic is new to UWL this year and is excited to get to work teaching UWL’s students! Nic is a theatre historian and artist specializing in Irish theatre and drama, censorship history, and performance theory and practices. A proud member of Actors' Equity Association (AEA), Nic has also worked as an actor and singer at Lincoln Park Performing Arts Center, the Pittsburgh Festival Opera, the Virginia Samford Theatre, and the Barn Theatre.

Nicholas Bilyeu (Man in Suit)--Nick is excited for his first production in the Frederick Theatre! You may have last seen him in UWL’s A Christmas Carol (Joe the Beetler) or Severe Clear (Narrator). He’d like to thank his friends, family, and Alé for all their support. Enjoy the show!

Cameron Cavaiuolo (Leroy the Dog)--Cameron is a junior who is super excited to be performing in his first ever kids theatre show. Cameron recently performed as Marley in A Christmas Carol. He would like to give a big THANK YOU to his friends and family who continuously supported him throughout his adventure in the acting world.

Michelle Collyar (Costume Designer)--With an MFA in design, Michelle manages the costume shop and teaches costume technology. Having designed/constructed costumes and dancewear for regional and academic theatres, Michelle recently worked on two television series filmed in Canada: Let’s Get Physical starring Jane Seymour and This Hour Has 22 Minutes, a Canadian mock news series.
Val Fish (Blue Dragon/Dramaturg)--Val is thrilled to pieces to be the Blue Dragon! She is a sophomore Performance major who has previously appeared in Edward Tulane and A Christmas Carol. Thanks to Mom and Dad and shout out to brothers Nate and Davey, who love this book :)

Sage Goetsch (Stage Manager)--Sage is thrilled to be stage managing his first production at UWL! He was recently an assistant stage manager for Murder on the Orient Express and The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane. He would like to thank his friends and partners for always being there to support him. Enjoy the show!

Ben Golden (Sound Designer/Master Electrician)-Ben is the Lighting and Sound Supervisor for the department. His work has been seen at theatres across the Midwest, including Great River Shakespeare Festival, Children’s Theatre of Madison, Madison Opera, Music Theatre of Madison, Des Moines Metropolitan Opera, Viterbo University and Cardinal Stritch University.

Anna Halvorsen (Boy)--Anna is ecstatic to be performing in Dragons Love Tacos. She is a junior majoring in Performance and minoring in Stage Management. Previous acting credits include A Christmas Carol, Edward Tulane, and Severe Clear. Previous production team credits include Secret In The Wings (Dramaturg) and Murder on the Orient Express (Assistant Stage Manager). She thanks her friends and family for their support and the cast and crew for being a wonderful community!

Kira Hirsch (White Dragon)--Kira is a freshman at UW-La Crosse. She is very excited to be a part of her second college show as the White Dragon. Her first performance at UWL was as Belinda in A Christmas Carol. Kira hopes you enjoy the show!
Paige Huling (Yellow Dragon)—Paige is so excited to be in her third production at UWL. She is a first year Theatre Performance major. Having just previously been in A Christmas Carol as Beggar and Murder on the Orient Express as Michel, she is very grateful for all of the lessons and opportunities she’s learned from her directors and fellow actors. She hopes you enjoy this terrific show!

August Jennings (Asst. Costume Designer)—August is a third-year Theatre Design/Tech and 3D Art student. This is his first costume design at UWL! He was previously the scenic designer for Shrek the Musical and the headdress designer for Xanadu at Broadway Theatre. He is also a member of the UWL scene shop staff. He would like to thank his best friend, Laura, and his partner, Madyn, for always supporting his art and antics.

Sam Kallis (Technical Director)—Sam is a 4th year student at UWL. He has been working in the scene shop as either a volunteer or staff member since his freshman year. He is excited to see what this year and show has in store for him.

Mandy Kolbe (Scenic/Props Designer)—Mandy earned her MFA in scenic and lighting design from Ohio State University. She has designed over 50 shows at UWL including A Christmas Carol, Eleemosynary, 26 Pebbles, Hair, Twelfth Night, Urinetown, The Last Days of Judas Iscariot, and many more. She has also designed for the Ashland Theatre, Arrow Rock Lyceum Theatre, The Brick, and the Hudson Guild.

Katie Krueger (Asst. Stage Manager)—Katie is so excited to be a part of the stage management team for this production. Katie has previously worked as an ASM on A Christmas Carol. She is a double major in Marketing and Finance, with a minor in Stage Management. Katie would like to thank her family and friends for the support. Enjoy the show!

Katie Last (Asst. Stage Manager)—Katie is a freshman double majoring in Sociology and Stage Management. She is thrilled to have her first assistant stage management opportunity in the department, and she hopes you enjoy the show!

Jess Miller (Scenic Designer)—Jess is a junior majoring in Theatre Design and Marketing. She has been a part of several productions with the university in the paint and props department and is very excited to work on this show. Jess would like to thank all the cast and crew for their hard work.
Abby Muma (Red Dragon)--Abby is all "fired up" to be playing the Red Dragon in their third production at UWL! They've previously performed in UWL's Murder on the Orient Express and A Christmas Carol. They want to thank their family for their support with theater, and hope you enjoy the show!

Elin Voegeli (Asst. Costume Designer)--Elin is a first-year Theatre Design major with a minor in French. They are thrilled to be an assistant designer for Dragons Love Tacos. Elin has been involved in theatre for eight years and participated in over 35 productions. Elin was honored to be the costume run crew head for A Christmas Carol last semester. They enjoy their job working in the costume shop and are grateful for all the opportunities that Joe and Michelle have provided for them.

Director’s Notes

Children’s theatre sometimes gets a bad rep. “Serious” artists turn up their noses and roll their eyes. Yet producing theatre for young audiences can be just as artful an experience as plays by Shakespeare or Samuel Beckett and, in many ways, can be more impactful. Just as most Americans today can name their favorite movies and TV shows from their childhood – from Mr. Rodgers’ Neighborhood, Sesame Street, and Captain Kangaroo to today’s Bluey and Paw Patrol, to speak nothing of Disney, Pixar, and Dreamworks animation films – most theatre artists can name some of their first theatrical experiences.

Disney’s leap to the Broadway stage with Beauty and the Beast and The Lion King (among others) followed a long tradition of children’s theatre on this nation’s most prestigious stages, including Peter Pan (1954) and Babes in Toyland (1903) among many, many others.

So: children’s theatre not only has a long artistic heritage but can introduce and, indeed, shape the next generation of theatregoers and artists! It also teaches lessons and provides a space for laughter, joy, imagination, and play. What I’ve found about Dragons Love Tacos is that it is precisely about the value of play and imagination for children, yes, but adults, too. I’ve grown through it, as have the students working on it, and so will our young audiences. Play is vital – and therefore (if I may), plays are vital. I hope you enjoy our play!

Special Thanks
