Prepare for graduate school entrance exams

Planning to continue your education in graduate, business or law school?

Boost your confidence as you prepare for this important next step.

We are here to help!

Standardized tests are a crucial component of the graduate school application process.

Success on these exams is an integral step in achieving your goals.

Live-online:

Enjoy the quality of a traditional classroom from the comfort and convenience of your home. Online classes are delivered by a live instructor and provide you with all the interactivity of a classroom experience. Whether you are in La Crosse, across the state, or across the globe, our live-online classes will help you prepare for these important exams.

All test prep courses include:

- Extensive instruction
- Experienced instructors
- Preparation materials
- Comprehensive presentations and explanations
- Actual questions from previous exams and computer-adaptive software
- Flexible schedule options

Graduate preparation programs:

GRE®

The Graduate Record Examination (GRE®) is required for a large variety of master's degree and doctoral degree programs. Maximize your potential with quality instruction covering each of the three main sections of the GRE® — Analytical Writing, Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning.

FEE: $749

GMAT®

The live-online Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT®) preparation program provides a thorough review of all tested math and verbal skills. Case studies involving real test questions help to reinforce the connection between the various skills and how they are tested on the GMAT®. The program consists of 24 hours of instruction from an experienced instructor combined with additional practice problems, sample tests and skill review exercise.

FEE: $749

LSAT®

Law School Admission Test (LSAT®) is offered live-online. All American Bar Association (ABA) Certified Law Schools require your valid LSAT® score as part of the admissions process. This course is ideal for you whether you're a current student, an undergraduate, a recent graduate or looking to apply to law school. The LSAT® is a paper-based test that is administered annually. We recommend that you take the LSAT® Test Prep class as close to your chosen exam date as possible.
