

“Adjunct Professor” Qualifications Table

Adjunct Faculty Academic Staff Rank	Qualification Guidelines
Adjunct Instructor	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A professional degree or certification;</li> <li>2. Professional practice certification and/or licensure as appropriate for their discipline;</li> <li>3. One or more years of clinical practice;</li> </ol>
Adjunct Assistant Professor	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A practice degree or certification at the baccalaureate;</li> <li>2. Professional practice certification and licensure, as appropriate for their discipline;</li> <li>3. Three or more years of clinical practice;</li> <li>4. Two or more years of successful clinical instruction;</li> <li>5. Evidence of scholarly activity demonstrated by research, administrative accomplishments, additional clinical expertise/certification and/or professional service</li> </ol>
Adjunct Associate Professor	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A degree at the graduate level;</li> <li>2. Professional practice certification and licensure, as appropriate for their discipline;</li> <li>3. Five or more years of clinical practice;</li> <li>4. Four or more years clinical instruction;</li> <li>5. Demonstrated excellence in this area of instruction;</li> <li>6. Demonstrated excellence in two of the following four areas of scholarly activity: (1) research, (2) administrative accomplishments, (3) additional clinical expertise/certification and/or (4) professional service.</li> </ol>
Adjunct Professor	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A degree at the graduate level;</li> <li>2. Professional practice certification and licensure, as appropriate for their discipline;</li> <li>3. Eight or more years of clinical practice;</li> <li>4. Six or more years clinical instruction;</li> <li>5. Demonstrated excellence in this area of instruction;</li> <li>6. Demonstrated excellence in three of the following four areas of scholarly activity: (1) research, (2) administrative accomplishments, (3) additional clinical expertise/certification and/or (4) professional service.</li> </ol>