SA1617-049: Resolution to Increase Student Senate Focus on Inclusivity

DATE: 4/17/2017

AUTHOR(S): Jori Given, Patrick Brever

SPONSOR(S): Dani Kallis, Natalie Burgess

WHEREAS; Student Senate can and should spend more time addressing issues of inclusivity;

WHEREAS; Student senators must fill out a survey in early fall outlining their goals for inclusivity;

WHEREAS; submitting the survey in Fall will establish inclusivity as an early priority;

WHEREAS; the survey shall consist of the following questions:

“What will you do as a senator to promote inclusivity and diversity?”

“What previous experiences have you had working with a diverse group of people?”

“How will you engage with diverse constituents?”

“How will you reach out to all of your constituents?”

“What would you like to see improved on this campus?”

WHEREAS; the Inclusivity Director shall collect the surveys and monitor progress;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED; Beginning in the Fall of 2017, student senators will answer the above questions and turn them into the Student Association Inclusivity Director. The Inclusivity Director will hold onto their responses and then meet with each Senator at the end of the Fall and Spring semesters to discuss progress made and room for improvement.
