SA1718-017: Resolution to Remove RHAC Senate Seats from Student Association Constitution and Student Senate Bylaws

DATE: November 4th, 2017

AUTHOR(S): Ben O'Connell, Justice Weaver

SPONSOR(S):

WHEREAS RHAC decided to disband and no longer exists;

WHEREAS without a governmental body to go back to, residence life seats on Student Senate cannot be justified;

WHEREAS 2/3 of the UWL student population lives off campus and there are no off campus senate seats;

WHEREAS all individuals living in residence halls are already at least represented by their college;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED; The Student Association of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse approves of removing the two RHAC senate seats from the Student Association Constitution. Removing the two seats will lower the number of Student Senators from 35 to 33.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED; A student body wide referendum will be held in December to either approve or deny this change to the constitution.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED; The Student Association of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse approves of removing the two RHAC seats from the Student Senate Bylaws, as well as removing RHAC reports from the Student Senate agenda in section 5.1 of the Student Senate Bylaws.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED; No election or appointment process will be held to fill RHAC, or residence life, senate seats unless the changes to the constitution are rejected by the student body.
