SA1718-043: Resolution Endorsing Proposed Segregated Fee Changes

DATE: 4/16/2018

AUTHOR(S): Haley Jurecki

SPONSOR(S): SUFAC

WHEREAS the purpose of the Segregated University Fee Allocation Committee (SUFAC) is to “make recommendations to the Student Senate regarding the manner in which university fees are to be distributed among eligible activities and programs” and;

WHEREAS the non-allocable segregated fee will bear a target increase of 1.75% in consideration of various factors requiring an increase in funding, without any increase in the discretionary expenditure budget;

WHEREAS due to the student-approved building projects, such as The Fieldhouse and Rec 2.0, the Segregated Fee withstands an increase due to the advancement of those projects;

WHEREAS Academic Programming budgets previously under allocable budgets are now funded by the University in its GPR budget, per UW System policy;

WHEREAS scrupulous analysis of each allocable and non-allocable budget has been done with considerable input from students on both SUFAC and its subcommittee NUFAS (Non-Allocable segregated Fee Allocation Committee) which has allowed for an agreeable reduction in some entities’ budgets and has provided an offset of the required rate-increasing factors;

WHEREAS; after discussion with the Budget Office and the Vice Chancellor of Budget and Finance, Bob Hetzel, SUFAC endorses a 0.8% increase in the Student Segregated Fee, to be dispersed as indicated in the budget attached.
