WHEREAS COVID-19 was declared a global pandemic by the World Health Organization on March 11, 2020 and has caused significant change and upheaval across the globe and here in La Crosse; and

WHEREAS the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse has moved to online classes for the remainder of the Spring 2020 semester and many aspects of campus life have been overhauled, modified, or shut down for the time being; and

WHEREAS UWL’s faculty has undertaken the enormous task of shifting and re-writing their curriculum for a new online format in a matter of weeks, and has done so to support the learning and success of their students; and

WHEREAS UWL’s administration has been hard at work planning for the post-COVID-19 future and rolling out policies and programs to support all members of the UWL community in the meantime; and

WHEREAS members of UWL’s staff – from sanitation and janitorial, to retail and dining, from health and counseling, to administrative and beyond—have been working around the clock to keep UWL running so our community can stay safe and stay healthy; and

WHEREAS UWL could not function during this crisis without the incredible efforts of faculty, student workers, staff, graduate assistants, and administration;
