WHEREAS Dana Nielsen has served on Student Association for the past two year as a Senator for the College of Arts, Social Sciences, and Humanities, and most recently as Vice President; and

WHEREAS after 4 impactful years at UWL, Dana will be graduating with majors in Public Administration and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies this May; and

WHEREAS Dana has left an impact at UWL with her organization and commitment to Senate along with providing support for students during this unprecedented time with COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS she has been an active voice for students through her lobbying efforts at the state government for student loan refinancing and Phase II for Prairie Springs; and

WHEREAS she has taken on the role of Vice President, despite it being an unplanned role for her senior year; and

WHEREAS she has planned and held a successful Elect Her event that encourages women to get involved in their government and run for public office;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED Dana Nielsen be recognized by Student Association for her impactful work at UWL and honored with this Thanks of the Senate.
