

Questions to ask when conducting an Informational Meeting

Questions for faculty and advisors:

- 1. What drew you to teach/advise in this area of study?
- 2. What type of student should consider _____ as their major?
- 3. What do you feel is the most important thing that a student choosing this major should know?
- 4. What skills or personal characteristics are necessary for a student to be successful in this major?
- 5. What are the common obstacles that prevent students from being successful in this major?
- 6. How is UWL's reputation of in this area of study viewed among employers/graduate schools?
- 7. Do you find that UWL alumni are satisfied with their decision to enter this field? Are there specific challenges they face as they leave he university?
- 8. What classes would you recommend to explore this major?
- 9. Are there any student/professional organizations that would help me to further explore this field?
- 10. What additional exploration resources would you recommend that I look at?
- 11. Is admission required for this major? If so, could you explain the requirements
- 12. What initial classes would you recommend if I am ready to pursue the major?
- 13. Could you talk about common career paths associated with this major?
- 14. What is the current employment outlook for students choosing this major? Do you expect this outlook to change in the next few years?
- 15. Once my undergraduate degree in finished, should I consider obtaining an advance degree?

Questions for professionals in the field:

- 1. What is your exact title? How long have you been in your position/career field?
- 2. What are the specific duties/functions/responsibilities of your job?
- 3. What made you pursue this particular career?
- 4. What does a typical workday look like for you?
- 5. What aspects of your job/career do you personally find most satisfying?
- 6. Which parts of you job/career are the most challenging? How do you handle these challenges?
- 7. Is there any specific education or training requirements needed to enter this field?
- 8. Are there specific academic classes that have proved to be valuable to you in your work?
- 9. In this field, what are the typical entry-level job titles and responsibilities?
- 10. What is the employment outlook like in your career field?
- 11. Do you know what the typical entry-level salary is in this field?
- 12. What advice do you have for new professionals entering this field?
- 13. What personal characteristics or skills do you feel contribute most to being successful in this career?
- 14. Can you recommend other resources that will help me explore this career field?

These questions should serve as a template. Please tailor them to the information that you seek to gain and if necessary, develop additional questions.