

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-LA CROSSE

MASTER ADVISOR PROGRAM

Applications are now open for the first cohort of UWL's Master Advisor Program.

This professional development opportunity seeks to help UWL faculty advisors develop as academic advisors and to help you better serve your advisees. Completion of the program will indicate your commitment to quality advising to your students and colleagues.

Spring 2021 Dates

Applications Due	December 18
Online Asynchronous components	January 11-25
Synchronous Meeting	January 26, 10am-12pm
Final Reflection	submitted by February 9

Participants that complete all pieces of the Master Advisor Program will be granted Master Advisor Certification. They will be presented with a certificate and a profile token that will appear on their UWL profile page and email signature.

To maintain certification, Master Advisors must complete two hours of continuing professional development within the following 2-year period. Various training opportunities that relate to advising can be considered to count towards this requirement and will be submitted via an online form.
