Affidavit of Support

Students seeking F-1 or J-1 student status are required by law to document that sufficient funds are available to cover all expenses while attending the university. Keep a copy of all financial support documents to present to the U.S. Consul when you apply for your student visa. Please visit this website for the most recent estimates:

Name of Sponsor: _____

Relationship to Student: _____

Amount of Funding Available: _____

SIGNATURE OF SPONSOR: By signing this document, I agree to be financially responsible for all expenses of the student named above while he/she attends the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. This includes all tuition, fees, health insurance, housing, meal plans and living expenses. I have reviewed the estimated costs and understand that costs are subject to change.

Proof of funding in the form of a letter/statement from my financial institution, showing at least the minimum amount required is attached to this Affidavit of Support. F-1 students must show documentation for one year of study or the length of the program, whichever is less. J-1 students are required to show sufficient funding for the duration of the program based on these yearly estimates

Note: If multiple bank statement pages are submitted, be certain each page clearly reflects the same account. If the bank statement is a corporate/business account, a letter authorizing personal use of the account must be provided.
