

Housing REMINDERS

3 STEPS TO MAKE SURE YOU ARE READY!

DUE JUNE 1

Living Learning Communities

01

APPLY FOR A LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITY

Living Learning Communities are optional communities where students can choose to live surrounded by others with similar interests.

Apply for a Living Learning Community by revisiting the LLC page of the housing application. Adding an LLC preference will not alter your application complete date.

Health Professions Community

O. White Hall

For students interested in the healthcare professions.

Women in STEM Community

Hutchison Hall

For students interested in careers in Science, Technology, Engineering or Math.

Pride Center Community

Wentz Hall

A housing community in which LGBTQIA+ students and allies feel a sense of belonging and are affirmed, empowered, and celebrated. Includes gender-inclusive housing.

Visual & Performing Arts Community

Wentz Hall

Step into a world where creativity thrives and artistic expression knows no bounds. This community offers a unique haven for students passionate about the arts.

Outdoor Recreation Community

Eagle Hall

Designed for students who have a passion and an interest in outdoor activities.

Education Majors Community

Sanford Hall

Designed for students in the School of Education or thinking about majoring in education.

Log on to the Housing Portal and click the link to visit roommate selection (if you are using a phone use the menu button).

02

Roommate Bio

Do you want to be shown in the roommate search results of the Roommate Selection process?

Roommate Selection process allows you to include a description about yourself to share with potential roommates. You can optionally include specific contact information (personal email, social media, etc.) that you would like to be contacted through.

Roommate Bio Examples

"Hi I'm Molly. I am a first year student from a small town in Minnesota. I love country music and hiking. I like to try new things and meet people. I am undecided regarding a major. I would love to live near the Union so my top choices are Sanford and White Halls."

"I am a returning student majoring in Archaeology. I am involved in Greek Life and other student organizations on campus. Raider and Eagle are my preferred halls for next year. I take my academics seriously. I'm excited to find a roommate!"

"Hey! My name is John. I am a new transfer student and am majoring in Biology. I plan to be part of the football team. I love sports and video games. It would be cool to have a roommate who would like to bow-intramurals or is interested in fishing. My hall preferences are Angel, Coale, and Wentz. Because of my living schedule, I tend to go to bed around 9:30PM."

Pro Tips

You will have the opportunity later to search for people by shared interests. If there is anything that you want other people to be able to search for you by make it a hashtag (#studentathlete, #roomtor, #band).

Roommate Selection

Step 1: Roommate Search

Get the search features to find the right roommate for you.

Search for Roommates by Details Search for roommates by details such as First Name, Last Name, Ethnicity, Religion, etc.

Search for Roommates by Profiles Search for roommates by profile or response to frequently asked questions. Filter by roommate type.

Suggested Roommates View your suggested roommates based on the questions you answered on the questionnaire and the age of the roommate you selected.

Send Message In each roommate search result, you will see a "Send Message" option next to each person. You can click this button to send a message to the roommate. The message will show up in the Housing Portal message center on the main login page. Students can also receive an email at their UWLax email account notifying them that they have received a group message.

Step 2: Form a Roommate Group

You will need to form a roommate group and you have identified the students you want to join up with.

You can either add people to the group. Once the group is created, you can add more people to the group. You can also create a new group.

Once you have created a group, you can search for your roommates, and you will see a list of suggested roommates. You can click on the suggested roommates to view their profiles.

Once you have selected your roommates, you can click on the "Form a Roommate Group" button to create a group.
