University of Wisconsin Center for Placement Testing

Most Universities require students to take placement tests. The majority of students will take the exams the spring before their freshman year during the Regional Testing Program. Regional Testing registration begins in February each year, and throughout spring and summer. Students who don't test during the Regional Testing Program must make arrangements with the campus they are attending to take the test at other times of the year. Please refer to your admission sales you plan on attending for information about which placement tests you are required to take.

The Center for Placement Testing is administered by Testing and Evaluation Services. The Center leads committees of faculty and instructional staff from various UW System campuses in developing placement tests which are used system-wide for incoming freshmen. Staff from Testing and Evaluation conduct studies to support the development of these tests and effectively use the results to place freshman into appropriate levels in math, English and foreign language courses. Follow the links below for specific information regarding the University of Wisconsin Placement Tests.

Regional Testing Registration 2022

Please continue to monitor communications from your campus for updates to placement testing requirements, deadlines and testing alternatives.

If you are asked by your campus to complete your placement tests online:

1. Verify which tests you are advised to take.
2. Once you have determined which tests you are being asked to take, you will need your campus login to access our registration form. If you have not already set up your campus login, you may contact your campus helpdesk for assistance.

Students requesting special accommodations should not register online. Follow this link to request special accommodations due to a disability.

From the UW System login page, choose UW-LA CROSSE from the dropdown menu and click the GO button

The screenshot shows the UW System login page. At the top right, there are links for "Login Help", "Troubleshooting", and "System Outages". The main content area features the UW University of Wisconsin System logo. Below the logo, a message states: "This service requires you to authenticate with your local organization. Select your organization from the list below." A dropdown menu is open, showing a list of organizations. "UW-La Crosse" is highlighted in blue. To the right of the dropdown is a red "Go" button. Two red arrows point from the text above to the "UW-La Crosse" option and the "Go" button. At the bottom of the page, there is a copyright notice: "© Board of Regents - University of Wisconsin System. All Rights Reserved."

Enter your UWL NET ID and the PASSWORD you set for WINGS and click "SIGN IN"

Complete the form and use a personal email address to which you have current access (not a school email which might expire when you graduate, nor your UWL email which may not be active until you attend START in June). The registration system will send you three mails that you need to register. Be sure to enter your email address accurately.

You are logged in as: YourNetID@uwlax.edu

If the account listed above is not the student who will be taking the placement tests (for example if you are using a shared computer and someone else is logged in) please do not continue with registration until you are able to start a session logged in with your own campus account.
