

The Rise of Islamophobia in the U.S.

April 4, 2016 | 5:30 p.m.

Skogen Auditorium — 1400 Centennial Hall

Discuss the manifestations and impact of Islamophobia in the U.S. and the threats it presents to American ideals and the U.S. Constitution. It will also discuss pragmatic solutions to the problem.

Corey Saylor

Director, Department to Monitor and Combat Islamophobia
Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR)

An expert on political communications, legislative advocacy, media relations and anti-Islam prejudice in the United States with 20 years of experience — directs the Department to Monitor and Combat Islamophobia at the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR).

UWL SPONSORS:

Campus Climate
College of Business Administration
College of Liberal Studies
International Education & Engagement
International Student Organization
Provost Betsy Morgan

Departments of:
Chemistry and Biochemistry
Economics
Ethnic and Racial Studies
History
Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies
School of Education

For more information visit www.uwlax.edu/iee

