

THE UWL ANTI-ISLAMOPHOBIA WORKING GROUP AND UWL FASHION WEEK PRESENT VISITING ARTIST OF COLOR

MODEL » SPEAKER » ADVOCATE

Mariah Idrissi

MUSLIM, MODEL AND MOTIVATION

MONDAY | OCT. 23 | 4 P.M.
1400 Centennial Hall | UW-La Crosse

For Idrissi, modeling is just one role which she utilizes to bring awareness and comfort to women looking for balance, a place in the world, and their power.

ARTIST RECEPTION

TUESDAY | OCT. 24 | 4-5 P.M.
3100 Centennial Hall | UW-La Crosse

CHANGING THE FACE OF FASHION

TUESDAY | OCT. 24 | 6 P.M.
1309 Centennial Hall | UW-La Crosse

Idrissi connects two worlds — the world of fashion and Muslim women — by her experience as one of the first Muslim models in an H&M promo. She explores the ways representation in fashion and elsewhere can lead to breaking down barriers of misconceptions and Islamophobia.

EVENTS ARE FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

For more info/special accommodations contact Prof. Heidi Morrison (h Morrison@uwlax.edu) or Prof. Mahruq Khan (mkhan@uwlax.edu)

SPONSORED BY: UWL Provost Office Visiting Artist of Color Grant; Office of the Provost; College of Liberal Studies; College of Business Administration; International Education and Engagement; Departments of: History; Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies; Communication Studies; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Geography; Global Cultures and Languages; Health Education and Health Promotion; Psychology; Sociology; Theater Arts; International Studies; Philosophy; Political Science/Public Administration; and Ethnic and Racial Studies; UWL Institute for Social Justice; Affirmative Action Office; International Student Organization; La Crosse Interfaith Shoulder to Shoulder Network (LISSN).

