Student Employment

There are two types of employment opportunities available to UW-La Crosse students:

Federal Work-Study is a program for students who demonstrate financial need as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) application.

Student Help, unlike Work-Study, is not need-based employment. Many positions are available on campus.

Student Employment FAQ

Am I eligible to work on campus?

To be eligible you:

- Must be enrolled at least half-time
 - Undergraduate, at least six credits/semester
 - Graduate, at least five credits/semester
 - International students must be enrolled full-time (12 credits undergraduate, nine credits graduate)
- Must be eligible to work in the U.S.
- Must complete all required forms
- Must be registered with Selective Service if you are a male between the ages of 18 and 25

I wasn't awarded Work-Study, can I still work on campus?

- You can contact the department(s) on campus that you are interested in working for to inquire about potential Student Help job opportunities.
- For information on available job opportunities, view the list included in this brochure and/or visit Handshake:
www.uwlax.edu/career-services/handshake
Select 'Handshake Login.'

I was awarded Federal Work-Study. What do I need to know?

- If you accept Work-Study as part of your financial aid award, you must complete a Work-Study Assignment Questionnaire.
- You will be assigned to an on- or off-campus department based on your responses to the questionnaire and the needs of the departments.
- The amount of the award is the maximum amount you can earn through the Work-Study program for that school year. If you don't earn the entire amount, it will not carry over to the following year. However, any unearned Work-Study from the Fall may carry over to the Spring semester.
- You will only be paid for the hours you work. You will receive a bi-weekly paycheck. Your earnings will not be credited directly to your student bill.

How much will I get paid?

- At least the current minimum wage
- Some jobs have a higher wage based on the skill level needed for the position

How will I get paid?

- Direct deposit into your personal bank account
- Paid every two weeks for hours worked in the previous two-week pay period

How many hours can I work?

- A maximum of 20 hours per week while classes are in session
- A maximum of 40 hours per week when classes are not in session
