University Overview

The University of Wisconsin–La Crosse (UWL) is a public university in La Crosse, Wisconsin. Founded in 1909, it is a leading comprehensive university as part of the University of Wisconsin System offering bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. With 9,600 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students, UW-La Crosse is composed of four schools and colleges offering 102 undergraduate programs, 31 graduate programs, and 2 doctoral programs. UW-La Crosse has nearly 85,000 alumni across all 50 U.S. states and 57 countries. Located on the great Mississippi River surrounded by towering bluffs and meandering rivers, La Crosse is home to 51,000+ (metro: 136,000+) people. Look for bald eagles soaring overhead and listen for nostalgic riverboat whistles. Whether trekking the La Crosse River marsh or hiking the bluffs, your path runs through UW-La Crosse!

*Graduate level students interested in undergraduate coursework welcome to apply.

Language of Instruction	English
Average Course Credit Load	12-15 credits/semester
Minimum Credit Load	12 credits/semester
Maximum Credit Load	18 credits/semester
Course Restrictions	Restricted Courses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• English as a Second Language (ESL) – courses no longer offered.</li><li>• Nuclear Medicine Technology</li><li>• Radiation Therapy</li><li>• Health and Wellness Management</li><li>• Internships, Practicums, Experiential Learning courses during first semester</li><li>• Graduate level coursework</li></ul>
Course Prerequisites	Generally, 100 and 200 level courses are open to incoming students. Entry to some 200 and all 300 and 400 level courses require proof that student has taken relevant prerequisites at their home university.
Grading System	A semester grade point average is calculated by dividing the grade points earned by the number of credits attempted that semester. The cumulative average is the total number of grade points earned divided by the total number of credits attempted. GPAs are not rounded; they are truncated at two digits and a zero is added as the third digit for all students. UWL grade point averages are determined only by grades in UWL courses.

English Proficiency

Where the primary language of instruction at the home university is not English, applicants must satisfy the English language requirements for entry to the program. Updated entry requirements located at the international student admission website.
