INTERNATIONAL STUDENT TRANSFER OUT FORM

FOR STUDENTS LEAVING UWL

Current UWL international students planning on transferring to another university/college in the U.S. will need to turn in the documentation below to their UWL International Student Advisor at least 2 weeks prior to the date of their transfer. You must provide this information before the new school can issue you an I-20.

There are several steps which you will need to be completed if you are planning on transferring to another institution.

1. Complete this ‘International Student Transfer Out Form’
2. Attach the new school’s letter of acceptance/admission to this form.
3. Attach the new school’s SEVIS Transfer In form (with the student’s portion completed) to this form.
4. Please make sure all three documents are completed and submit them together to International Education & Engagement at least TWO WEEKS BEFORE you would like record to be released.

 If any documents are missing, the transfer will be delayed
