Residence Life Housing Contract Student Code of Conduct

UWL Residence Life has high expectations for what it means to live on campus. Students are responsible for their behavior and how they interact with other members of their community. Our students thrive, in part, because of the strong sense of community in the residence halls. By signing a UWL Residence Life Housing Contract students accept responsibility for knowing and adhering to these policies.

Residence Life Procedures

Adjudication Process
In the event that a student violates Residence Life policy, a student will be asked to meet with a Residence Life Professional Staff Member to discuss the policy violation(s). If found responsible the student will be assigned sanctions (consequences) as a result of their behavior. In severe situations, or if there is a pattern of policy violations, an Associate Director of Residence Life will meet with the student and determine sanctions (consequences). Common sanctions include assigning one or more of the following: alcohol or drug education, reflection papers, community service, restitution, residence hall probation, parental notification, relocation to another residence hall, cancellation of housing contract, and/or referral to the Student Life Office for university disciplinary action.

Through this process, students have an opportunity to appeal a conduct decision. Appeals must be on the grounds of at least one of the following criteria in order to be considered:
(a) A sanction is excessively severe.
(b) New evidence is available that would have substantially affected the outcome of your conduct meeting.
(c) There was a procedural error which substantially affected the outcome of your conduct meeting.
All appeal decisions are final.

If a student requires any accommodation to navigate the conduct process, they should contact Residence Life (housing@uwlax.edu). Residence Life will partner with the campus ACCESS Center to provide reasonable accommodations.

Bias Incidents
Residence Life and UW-La Crosse view bias incidents and all manifestations of prejudice and intolerance as contradictory to our mission as a University and a community, and as a threat to each individual's right to a safe living and learning environment. Any non-criminal act motivated, in whole or in part, by the victim's actual or perceived race, religion, ethnic background, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, or disability is considered a bias incident. Residence Life, in conjunction with campus partners, will intervene in all such incidents.

In order to prevent bias incidents from creating a hostile environment for any individual or group on campus and interfering with UW-La Crosse’s educational mission, we believe the University and all people of conscience within the campus community must raise their voices in opposition to messages of bias and intolerance, and in support of inclusiveness for all. If students experience or witness a bias incident, please notify a Residence Life staff member immediately and complete a Bias Incident Report through the Center for Transformative Justice. To learn more about the response to bias incident reports, visit the Center for Transformative Justice website.
Campaigning
The policy and procedures regarding political campaigning are designed to allow candidates or their representatives the opportunity to discuss issues, distribute literature, and provide students opportunities to talk with candidates. In addition, this policy and these procedures are designed to protect student rights to privacy in their residential setting. Candidates or their representatives in elections pertinent to residence hall students, may conduct door-to-door campaigning, hold open meetings in a designated meeting place, and distribute literature following the procedures below:

- Campaigning may only be done between 3:00pm - 6:00pm.
- Candidates or their representatives must check in at the residence hall front desk, leave identification, and wear a visible name badge (sticker, button, lanyard) while campaigning.
- No more than two people can campaign at a time.
- Candidates or their representatives may talk to and/or distribute literature to interested students.
- Campaigning needs to be conducted in a considerate manner that minimizes disruption to the community or its members. Candidates or their representatives must honor the wishes of students who choose not to speak with them.
- Candidates may reserve common area space in advance through the Resident Director.
- Campaign materials may be posted on the registered bulletin board in each residence hall.
- Placing campaign materials under doors or posting them anywhere else in the residence hall is prohibited.
- Candidates or their representatives who choose not to follow the above procedures will be asked to leave the residence hall and will not be allowed to return for the duration of the election.

Contractual Conditions/Contract Cancellation
Students must fulfill and comply with all terms and conditions of their housing contract. Any student who wishes to cancel a contract must submit a cancellation request through the housing portal. Requests will be reviewed and decided by the Director of Residence Life or their designee.

https://www.uwlax.edu/reslife/apply-for-housing/housing-contract/

Extended Evacuation
If evacuation from a Residence Hall for an Extended Period of Time is determined by emergency personnel and Residence Life Professional Staff alternative options will be made available to shelter-in-place. Those locations include the Recreational Eagle Center (The REC) and the Student Union (The U). Both locations can be used if needed based on total number of students who must evacuate.

Fire Procedures
Know and follow fire evacuation and safety information posted on the back of student room doors and in designated locations throughout the residence hall. Note the location of fire extinguishers in your community.

In case of fire alarm or fire evacuation:

- If the door is hot or the hallway is full of smoke:
  - Remain in the room.
  - Put towels at the base of the door and seal all cracks.
  - Call University Police (608-789-9999) or Emergency Dispatch (911).
  - Hang or wave a sheet or towel from the window to signal for help.

- If it is safe to leave:
  - Close the door when leaving.
  - Follow evacuation information posted on the back of room doors.
  - Exit building and stand far away from the building and wait for the signal to re-enter.
Freedom of Speech
Residence Life values freedom of thought and expression and seeks to provide a constructive environment for residents to express themselves and to listen to and learn from their peers. Residence Halls are not a "public forum" in which any and all forms of expression are permitted, however. Behaviors which disrupt the living, learning, and working environment for other residents and staff members are not permitted. All residents are expected to conduct themselves in a manner which is respectful of the rights of others in a shared community.

For additional information on UWL’s guidelines for public forum see the following link: The Campus as a Public Forum

Personal Refrigerators
In Reuter Hall, each apartment kitchen has a full-sized refrigerator. All other residence hall rooms have a 3.5 cubic foot refrigerator provided by Residence Life. Students may bring an additional refrigerator, but only one additional personal refrigerator (3.5 cubic feet) is allowed per bedroom. There is no charge for having an additional refrigerator.

Posters, Signs and Materials
Residence Life Staff have both the right and the responsibility to regulate the hallway-facing side of room doors. The hallway-facing side of room doors affects the community of the residence hall, and not solely the students in the room. Therefore, students are prohibited from posting messages, signs or materials:

- That create fear, threaten, or intimidate a particular individual or group with racist, sexist, or homophobic message such that they have a concern for their personal safety.
- That present obscene, lewd or profane language.
- That incite violence within the residence hall community.
- That disrupt the mission of Residence Life to provide a living environment that is safe, inclusive and supports the educational development of students living on campus.

Publicity/Advertising
Posters and fliers must follow the UW-La Crosse publicity guidelines. Each residence hall has 1 or 2 Registered Bulletin Boards designed for postings by departments and organizations outside of Residence Life.

Residence Hall Exterior Door Access
All outside entrance doors are locked at all times (lobby, side and back doors). Students have access to their residence hall via their Student ID/University Identification Card. Students living in the residence halls are required to have their Student ID on them at all times. Contact the Campus Card Office uwlcardoffice@uw lax.edu or (608) 785- 8891 immediately if you lose your student identification card.

Residence Life University Break Procedures
Residence Halls remain open to students during university breaks. Any student living on campus during the fall semester is permitted to stay in their room for all or part of the break period. Break housing costs are not included in the fall or spring semester housing billing and will be billed to student accounts separated at the preestablished rate. Students must sign up indicating when they will be in the residence halls for winter break. Break information will be distributed to all on campus students prior to university breaks.

Room Changes and Consolidation
Students who desire to move to another room or move to another residence hall, can request a room change with their Resident Director. Space is limited and moves may not be available. Moves must be approved before any belongings are moved. Anyone moving without approval is subject to an improper check out charge, and will be asked to return to their original housing assignment. Residence Life reserves the right to change or restrict room assignments.

In circumstances where residence hall occupancy is lower, students without roommates may be offered the opportunity to "buy out" their room as a single (pending space availability) for the remainder of the academic year. If the room is not purchased as a single, the student may be required to participate in a room consolidation process within the Residence Hall. Individuals will be given the choice to either (1) find a roommate, or (2) move in with someone else. These moves must be completed within one week. If none of these options are taken, the student will be informed that they may get a new roommate at any time and that they will be expected to accept this new roommate.

Room Entry by Residence Life Staff
Residence Life Staff reserve the right to enter residence hall rooms for safety and security purposes. In such cases, effort will be made to notify students in advance, and to have the student present at the time of entry; however some situations warrant immediate entry if there is concern for the safety of individuals, the residence hall community or university property.

Room Inventories
When students move in to their residence hall room or apartment, they will receive an e-mail through their UWL email account directing them to complete an electronic room inventory form. The condition of the residence hall room is deemed to be good unless otherwise noted by the student on the room inventory from. It is recommended that students check the room carefully and note the condition of all items listed on the inventory form. Students will be charged for any damages that occur to their student room or apartment or if found responsible for damages caused in public areas within the residence hall. The University does not assume responsibility for personal property.

Room Keys
Each student is issued a key for their room. Students who are locked out of their room can check out a temporary key from the residence hall from desk. Outside of Desk Hours, students should contact staff in their residence hall to assist them. For security reasons, a lost room key should be reported immediately to residence life staff. Students will be charged for the replacement cost of a lost key and the lock change.

Students are responsible for the security of their rooms. Students should lock their rooms when they are sleeping or not present. The University does not assume responsibility for individual property. Students who experience damage or theft of their personal property should report the damage to residence hall staff and/or University Police. Students are encouraged to have renter’s insurance or work with their parents/guardians homeowners insurance to see if their belongings are covered.

Room Reservations
The only reservable spaces in the Residence Halls are the Eagle Hall Conference Room and the Eagle Hall Wilder Room (basement). There is a fee associated with utilizing these spaces. To reserve these spaces, contact the Office of Residence Life at housing@uw lax.edu. Other common rooms throughout the residence halls are intended for students in that live in that particular residence hall and are not reservable.

Requests to reserve outside spaces such as volleyball and basketball courts as well as open field spaces near Coate, Eagle, Drake, and Wentz is done through University Reservations. https://www.uwlax.edu/reservations/

Severe Weather / Tornado Procedures
Every individual has a responsibility to be attentive to weather conditions, and be prepared to react as necessary. Students will be alerted of severe weather through university police (UWL ALERT) or La Crosse siren.

In case of severe weather/tornado:
- Go to the basement or move to an interior area of the building.
- Close and lock room doors upon exiting.
- Protect head and face.
- Stay away from windows.
- In the event there is not time to evacuate, crawl under a desk or use a mattress for protection.
Review of Residence Life Policies and Procedures
The Director of Residence Life maintains the ability to alter Residence Life policies and procedures as needed. The needs of public safety, local/state/federal laws, and other circumstances may warrant policies to change at any time.

Residence Life Professional Staff annually review our policies and procedures for adjustments. If a student living on campus would like to propose a policy or procedure change, they should follow these steps:
1. Draft language in writing that reflects the proposed change.
2. Provide written rationale for the requested change. Rationale must include an explanation of how the proposed change remains in line with the UW System Code of Conduct, and stated values of the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse.
3. Send the proposed policy or procedure change and rationale to the Director of Residence Life.

The Director of Residence Life will then review and determine next steps, which may include meeting to discuss the proposal or presenting the proposal. The Director of Residence Life makes final decisions on proposed Residence Life policy or procedure changes.
