Deana and Paul Strunk Military Veterans Scholarship Program

Helping Veterans Enter the Geosciences

The AAPG Foundation's Deana and Paul Strunk Military Veterans Scholarship Program (MVSP) is designed to promote the advancement of student veterans or their military dependents educational geoscience programs at the undergraduate level.

The MVSP promotes education and career opportunities to veterans and/or their military dependents and aids in the transition of veterans to educational and civilian technical professions.

Scholarships offered are up to $5,000 for full-time students and up to $2,500 for part-time students.

Who Can Apply?

Eligibility requirements include active U.S. military service members (including National Guard and Reserve) and veteran members who have been honorably discharged from active service and are entering or re-entering a post-secondary undergraduate geoscience program, full time or part time, at a four-year accredited college or university.

In addition, military dependents (spouses and children) are eligible to apply for scholarships when entering a post-secondary undergraduate geoscience program at a four-year accredited college or university. Dependent categories include:

- Deceased
- Disabled
- Active
- Honorably Discharged/Retired

Applications will be accepted March 1 – May 15.
