

Getting Ready:

A free workshop for adults interested in starting or re-starting college

Saturday, April 27 from 10AM-2PM

No cost. Lunch provided.

Trane Park & Activity Room, 1500 Chase St. La Crosse

Do you want to go to college, but not sure how to begin? Do you need a fresh start in your educational journey? This hands-on workshop provides support to explore career interests and college programs.

Discuss challenges faced by adult college students and explore the strategies and resources that can help. Begin to identify your network of support and learn about the Self-Sufficiency Program at UW-La Crosse. Through short presentations, discussion, writing, and artmaking, you will discover a direction that's right for you.

Come with questions on parenting as a college student, careers, college programs, affordability, study-skills, and community resources. You will find answers, encouragement and meaningful fun!

Children are welcome. Activities and supervision provided.
