

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES: GETTING STARTED

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for our services, you must meet the following criteria:

1. U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident
2. Currently enrolled (or accepted) as an undergraduate at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse
3. One of the following:
 - First-generation college student (neither parent/guardian has a four-year degree)
 - Receive a substantial amount of financial aid (usually in the form of grants)
 - Have a diagnosed disability

APPLICATION

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis until all (350) positions are filled. Eligible students who apply after all positions have been filled may be waitlisted and accepted when a spot opens up.

The application process can now be completed completely online via DocuSign. Complete all required fields, including the signature. If your parent/guardian claims you as a tax dependent, you will need to provide their email address, and the application will be automatically forwarded for their signature. Your application will NOT be complete until your parent/guardian signs (unless you are independent).
