About The Race
The Coulee Chase is an event to celebrate National Athletic Training Month and to raise awareness about the athletic training profession. 75% of the proceeds go to the National Athletic Training Association Research and Education Fund. This fund helps provide for the advance in the knowledge of athletic training profession and for the continuation of research and communication between athletic trainers and those who contribute to their knowledge base.
25% of proceeds go to the Coulee Region Humane Society.

NATA (National Athletic Training Association)
March is National Athletic Training month. We are helping fundraise money to go to NATA for education purposes.
For More Information About Athletic Training visit: www.nata.org www.uwlax.edu/AthleticTraining

Coulee Region Humane Society
The Coulee Region Humane Society will be joining in on the Coulee Chase to raise awareness about animals in need of homes and to educate the community on health benefits of owning a pet. There will be a drop box for additional donations to the humane society.
