Master of Science in Occupational Therapy (MS in OT)

Student Handbook
Policies and Procedures

Summer 2013
Class of 2015
Table of Contents

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM CONTACT INFORMATION .......................................................6 - 7

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY MISSION STATEMENT .............................................................................8

PHILOSOPHY OF THE OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM ....................................................8

Beliefs About Humans Occupational Performance

Beliefs About How Students Learn

AOTA CENTENNIAL VISION ..................................................................................................................9

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM GOALS .............................................................................10

CURRICULUM DESIGN ..........................................................................................................................10 - 12

Figure 1: UW-L OT Logo

  Foundational Science
  Research skills
  Professional Identity/Leadership
  Clinical Skills
  Theory

EDUCATIONAL APPROACHES ..............................................................................................................12

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES ......................................................................................................14

CURRICULUM SEQUENCE ..................................................................................................................15

Figure 2: Masters of Science in Occupational Therapy ........................................................................15

REFERENCES .........................................................................................................................................15

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM DETAILS ............................................................................17-20

  Length

  Thesis Option

  Occupational Therapy Hands-On Experiences
    Out of Classroom Experiences
    Level I Fieldwork Experiences
    Level II Fieldwork Experiences
Fieldwork Expenses
Practical Examinations
Textbook Costs
Special Course Fees
Photocopying Expenses
Printing Expenses
NBCOT Exam
University of Wisconsin System Authorization
Accreditation

POLICIES GUIDING ACCESS TO AND USE OF RESOURCES ................................................. 21 - 21

HSC Resources ......................................................................................................................... 21 - 28
La Crosse Medical Health Science Consortium
Room Reservations
ADL Model Apartment
Laboratory Maintenance and Use Guidelines
Parking
HSC Policy on Daily Parking Permits

Health Policies ......................................................................................................................... 22 - 24
Latex Safe Environment
Fieldwork Health and Safety
Anatomy and Neuroanatomy Laboratory

Student Safety and Health-Safety Policies ........................................................................... 28 - 28
Criminal Background Check
UW-L Emergency Response Procedure
Fire Alarm Procedures

UW-L Campus Resources ......................................................................................................... 29 - 30
Student Health Center
Disability Resource Center
Counseling and Testing Center
Eagle Recreation Center
Murphy Library
Financial Aid
Gundersen Lutheran Medical Center Library

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES ............................................................................ 31 - 35

Program Expectation of The Graduate Student ..................................................................... 31
Professional Behavior

Specific Professional Behavior Policies ................................................................. 31 - 32
  - Attendance
  - Classroom Behavior
  - Safety
  - Adherence to policies and procedures

Advising .................................................................................................................. 32

Electronic Devices ............................................................................................... 32 - 33

Personal Use of Social Networking Sites ............................................................. 33

E-mail ....................................................................................................................... 33

Dress Code ................................................................................................................ 33 - 34
  - Classroom Attire
  - Lab Attire
  - Attire for Field Experiences

Solicitation of Feedback from Students ................................................................. 34 - 34
  - Evaluation of Teaching
  - Evaluation of the Occupational Therapy Program
  - Written Narrative Course Comments
  - Focus Groups
  - Student Evaluation of Fieldwork
  - D2-L Questions
  - Graduate Surveys
  - Ad Hoc Advisory Groups

STUDENT ACADEMIC POLICIES ........................................................................... 36 - 43

Student Conduct ...................................................................................................... 36

Occupational Therapy Grading Scale ..................................................................... 36

Policies Regarding Coursework .............................................................................. 36
  - Remedial work
  - Missed Classes
  - Re-scheduling of exams due to illness or emergency
  - Re-scheduling of exams NOT due to illness or emergency
  - Make up of missed material and examinations
  - Extra Credit Policy

Progression Through the Curriculum .................................................................... 37
  - Courses
  - Semester
  - Fieldwork
  - Graduation