OCW Holiday Social
December 5, 3:30-5:30 p.m.
at Cleary Center

The Organization for Campus Women (OCW) cordially invites all women on campus to come to the Holiday Social on December 5th, 3:30-5:30 p.m. in the Cleary Alumni and Friends Center. Come and socialize with other women from on campus and enjoy some home baked goodies. The Chancellor has approved release time for staff to attend this event. Please be sure your offices and duties are covered at this time.

Women’s Advisory Council: Mission & Membership

Established by Chancellor Judith Kuipers in 1992, the Women’s Advisory Council’s mission is to enhance the status of all women at UW-L and to provided consultation and recommendations to the Chancellor concerning women’s issues on campus. The council includes representatives from each of the following populations on campus: faculty, academic staff, classified staff, and students. The three year terms are staggered allowing a new representative to be added to each category each academic year. In addition, there are members serving ex officio, for Affirmative Action and Diversity, Human Resources, and the Organization of Campus Women. Following is a list of Women’s Advisory Council representatives for 2001/2002:

Kathi Beane, Student Development and Academic Services Division Office, has served as Membership Chair since Fall 2000. Kathi retires on January 11. Thank you, Kathi, for your service to OCW and best wishes as you begin a new life experience!

Charlene Holler, Counseling and Testing, has volunteered to fill the faculty vacancy on the OCW Steering Committee. Thanks and welcome, Charlene!
Committee Reports

Y-Tribute

Congratulations to Virginia Kreyer who is this year’s Y-Tribute winner! Ginny will be honored at the Y-Tribute dinner on Thursday, November 15 at the La Crosse Center Ballroom. RSVP to Donna Anderson if you are interested in more information.

Membership Committee

Chair Kathi Beane, reports that the current membership count is 39. There’s still time to join OCW and sign up for committees on which you are interested in serving (see last page). Remember that your joining and dues helps us to continue to fund the programming on campus. Without your membership, we will be unable to provide the variety of things we have funded in the past.

Symposium Committee

Lissa Carlson reports that the committee is at the beginning stages of planning for this Spring’s Symposium and welcomes anyone interested in event planning. It is a fun, project-oriented group that plans an annual symposium for women on campus.
Scholarship Fund Raiser
FUDGE—The perfect holiday gift for family, friends, co-workers, and student assistants

Mary Berling approached the OCW Steering Committee in October and proposed that OCW sell goodies to raise money for the OCW Scholarship Fund. Fudge (chocolate, chocolate with nuts, & peanut butter) was the item of choice. We are looking for women interested in spending a few hours baking fudge along with other OCW members. We will take orders until December 6 prior to the bake-a-thon that is tentatively scheduled for 12/8. Fudge will be wrapped and ready for pickup and payment the week of 12/10. Below is an order form. Please return the order form to Mary Berling, 121 Graff Main Hall by December 6 and contact Mary at berling.mary@uw腋x.edu or 5-8722 if you are available to bake.
