Wisconsin Women in Higher Education
Leadership Conference

Seven Program Assistants represented the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse at the Wisconsin Women in Higher Education Leadership Conference at St. Norbert College, De Pere, WI on Thursday & Friday, October 17 & 18, 2002.

Along with a keynote speaker there were sessions on Discovering your Leadership Style, Appreciative Inquiry, and Finding Serenity in a Stressful World. Sally Hegelson, author of the best-selling The Female Advantage: Women's Ways of Leadership, gave the keynote address Friday morning to a combination of faculty, staff and classified women. The main focus was developing leadership skills no matter what your status in higher education, and to support and appreciate the women who are in leadership positions.

Dr. Bill Hynes, President of St. Norbert College warmly welcomed the program assistants from UW-La Crosse. This was the first time classified women in leadership were invited to participate in this conference.

Coming Next Semester: Yogalates for Faculty/Staff
Tuesday & Thursday, 4:45-5:45 p.m., Room 101 Mitchell Hall

This exercise program is designed for all levels of fitness, fusing movements inspired by Yoga and Mat Pilates. This non-intimidating total body workout is designed to help improve strength, stamina, flexibility, posture, balance, and reduce stress. Taught by certified fitness instructor, Marge Troka, who will show you different levels of intensity and give precise technique tips for a safe, fun, and challenging workout.

Free Trial Class Dates: Tuesday, December 10, and Thursday, December 12
